Dedication

A decorative flourish consisting of a vertical line of intricate, swirling scrollwork and floral motifs, extending from the base of the letter 'D' in the title 'Dedication' down towards the text below.

We, the Class of 1955, in grateful remembrance of your work and sacrifice in helping us to obtain an education, do lovingly dedicate this Viking to you, our parents.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1951, thirty-two bright, clever, enthusiastic and rather shy young freshmen entered O.H.S. They included: Lafe Alexander, DeLyle Amundson, Ralph Balch, Patricia Brink, Donald Dammen, James Dickison, Janice Egeberg, Harold Ensor, LeRoy Farrey, Dolores Finster, Barbara Foslin, Elizabeth Geer, Phyllis Gilbert, Carol Gilbertson, Eugene Mahlum, Joyce Hasselman, Arlene Johnson, Carole Klusmeyer, Melvin Hanson, Paul Miller, Richard Morris, Ronald Nelson, William Olson, Albert Ostenson, Betty Perington, LaVerne Quass, Maureen Reavis, John Ryan, Ruby Kay Schmid, Joanne Stokes, and Cathy Verstynen. Mrs. Daniel Doone and Mrs. Elaine Wegner were our class advisors. Our class officers were as follows: President: LaVerne Quass, Vice-President: DeLyle Amundson, Secretary-Treasurer: Janice Egeberg. Phyllis Gilbert and La Verne Quass were the representatives on the Student Council. The first big event of the year, was "Initiation," which came on October 12. The Sophomores had great fun watching us do all those stunts they had planned for us. Afterwards, of course, we gave them a return party. The next event was Homecoming, October 26, for which our class had charge of the bonfire. Joyce Hasselman was representative on the Queen's Court.

In 1952, we returned as Sophomores with twenty-nine students. A new student, Elizabeth Chamberlain, was added to our class. Mr. F.J. Schnabl was our class advisor and the officers were as follows: President: Maureen Reavis, Vice-President: Phyllis Gilbert, Secretary: De Lyle Amundson; Treasurer: Joyce Hasselman. During the year, Donald Dammen, Joanne Stokes, Carole Klusmeyer, and Albert Ostenson transferred to other schools. Our enrollment increased when Claudette Sumpter, Bill Davis, and Roger Johnson came to Orford High. The biggest event of the year was on October 3, when we initiated the "Freshmen." We won first place on our window decoration for Homecoming. Phyllis Gilbert was our representative for the Queen's Court.

Suddenly, 1953, our Junior year, was before us. We began the year with twenty-one students. Mr. F.J. Schnabl was again our class advisor and the officers were: President: DeLyle Amundson, Vice-President, Roger Johnson, Secretary: Kay Schmid, Treasurer: LaVerne Quass. Kay Schmid and DeLyle Amundson were representatives on the Student Council. Patricia Brink joined us again that year, but we also lost a few members: Maureen Reavis, Bill Davis, Melvin Hanson, Bill Olson and Richard Gouvert withdrew during the year, also Elizabeth Chamberlain and Elizabeth Geer. The most important event of our Junior year was "Prom" on May 7. The theme was "Stranger in Paradise." Patricia Brink reigned as Queen and DeLyle Amundson as King. The court consisted of Janice Egeberg, Cathy Verstynen, Carol Gilbertson, and Betty Perington. We won first place on our window decoration for Homecoming. Maureen Reavis was representative on the Queen's Court. Another big event was the Junior Class Play "Along Came Charlie," which was given November 11-12. We received our class rings in September and everyone thought they were "really great."

In the fall of 1954, eighteen, very intelligent students entered O.H.S. as Seniors. Our class advisor was Mr. Richard Weaver. The officers were: President: Kay Schmid, Vice-President: Paul Miller, Secretary: Cathy Verstynen, and Treasurer: Janice Egeberg. Dolores Finster and Kay Schmid were representatives for the Student Council. The main events of the year were: Having our pictures taken October 9. Homecoming which was October 29. Cathy Verstynen reigned as Queen and Janice Egeberg was in the Court. LaVerne Quass and Roger Johnson were the co-captains. Besides these events we enjoyed making our annual, taking our class trip, attending the prom given in our honor, and participating in the Senior Class Play. Then came Class night, Baccalaureate Services, and Graduation. For some of us this all came to soon and now we must leave dear old Orford High and go forth into the world. Some will go on to college and some will get jobs right away. But we will always remember all the fun we have had at Orford High.

MAIL FROM THE FUTURE

Dear Mr. McGinnis:

When we decided to take a vacation to Europe, we didn't realize how our senior class members were scattered over a number of countries. We had a two hour wait in New York before our boat left for Europe, so we glanced through the telephone directory, coming upon the title of The Richard Heyerdahl Estate. We were curious to know if it was the Richard Heyerdahl we used to know, so we decided to call upon him. The door was opened by the butler, none other than Le Roy Staaland. We were escorted to the sun parlor where our suspicions were confirmed, for sitting on the love seat with a French Poodle by her side was our own Cathy Verstynen, who is now Mrs. Richard Heyerdahl. We had a little chat with her and then we decided it was time to leave.

Before we went on the boat, customs officer Jim Dickison, checked our luggage. Proceeding from there we displayed our passports to an old friend, Dick Morris, who is employed by the Travel Bureau. As we were wandering about the ship we ran into a fellow classmate, Carol Sumpter, formerly Carol Gilbertson. While we were talking she told us she was joining her husband, Wayne, in Japan where he is stationed at a Naval Base. While we were chatting we were paged by loudspeakers and recognized the slow drawl of Roger Johnson, who had been noted for his athletic abilities back in Orfordville. When we answered, we found there was a letter waiting from Mrs. Russell Borre, whom we knew as Claudette Sumpter. She informed us she is now living in Evanston with her husband Russell and son Bradley. We bought a paper and went to the lounge to enjoy reading it. There we ran into the ship's hostess. We found to our astonishment it was Kay Schmid who had been a very good friend of ours back in O.H.S. We talked with her for some time and then she said she had to get back to work, so we sat down to enjoy our paper. As we read the fashion page we saw the name Paul Miller which struck a familiar note to us. We continued reading and found that it was the Paul Miller with whom we had attended school and who is now very successful in "Paris Fashion Designing" in France. We then turned our attention to the sports page where we saw the name Joyce Hasselman. Much to our surprise she is a jockey at Churchill Downs and has brought in the winning horse five times in succession.

We received word our boat was to land in England so we prepared to leave the ship. As we landed on dock we saw another classmate, Janice Quass who was Janice Egeberg back in Orford. She told us that she and her husband LaVerne are teachers at Oxford University, LaVerne being the professor of Mathematics. She also told that she was meeting an oncoming ship bringing Betty Gray, formerly our Betty Perington, and her husband, Charles Gray, who are missionaries on their way to India.

We then decided we would go to a small restaurant and get lunch. On our way we passed a big engineering school bearing the name Ronald Nelson's Engineering School. We figured it must be the Ronnie we knew so in we ventured. Sure enough, sitting behind the executive's desk was the Ronnie Nelson of O.H.S. He told us he is very happy with his work and is engaged to a wealthy businessman's daughter. We then continued to a restaurant where we saw another familiar face--that of DeLyle Amundson. He told us he was resting after a season of baseball. He has been playing professionally with the Brooklyn Dodgers. On our last day's visit we decided we would go to Spain to see a bullfight. Whose name should we see on the program, Le Roy Farrey's, who was fighting one of the most notorious bulls in Spain.

This ends our report to you, Mr. McGinnis, and we wish you all of the success in the world as principal of Orfordville High School.

Yours Truly,
Arlene Johnson
and
Dolores Finster

Class Poem

As we, the class of 55,
Walk on to face the storms of life.
We look behind to things gone by
That've helped us earn our knowledge high.
The past has held for many of us
Memories rich in happiness.
Our teachers, friends, and parents, too,
Have helped us all the long years thru.
Our prom king, Delyle A.
Hopes to be a baseball star some day.
Jim Dickison, the quiet one,
A Ranger's job he will get done.
Janice E. is good in art,
A Senior boy has got her heart.
LeRoy Farrey on Saturday night
Toward the Wigwam makes his flight.
Delores Finster has got her eye
On a certain Brodhead guy.
With long blond hair is Carol G.
"We're going to live it up," says she.
Joyce H. is a cheerleading girl
Her life is one big whirl.
Next in line is Arlene J.
This girl will get along O. K.
Roger was a co-captain of our team
We all think he's mighty keen.
Paul was center on the team
"Miller Low Life," is his theme.
In Richard Morris's real hot car
After play practice we traveled far.
Wherever trouble is to be found
Ronnie, the Burger, will be around.
Betty P. has curly hair
She is a lassie, blond and fair.
A winner in sports is LaVerne,
A Senior girl is his concern.
The girl with the coolest complexion in the class
Is Ruby Kay, a mighty swell lass.
LeRoy S. was a whiz on the football team
Here's a guy who is on the beam.
With a diamond on her left hand
Is Claudette S. We think she's grand.
Our Homecoming queen was Cathy V.
A West Point Cadet's wife some day she'll be.
Janice Egeberg
Joyce Hasselman

CLASS WILL of "55"

We, the Class of 55, being of unsound mind and questionable mental stability, make this, our last will and testament.

We, the Senior Class, will and bequeath to the Junior Class our ability to make noise in Mr. Weaver's class and not get on detention.

We, the Senior Class, will our maturity to the Sophomore Class.

We, the Senior Class, will and bequeath our sophisticated and dignified ways to the Freshmen Class.

We, the Senior Class, will and bequeath our co-operation, our intelligence, and our mental abilities to Mr. McGinnis.

We, the Senior Class, will our knowledge of English to Miss Martin.

We, the Senior Class, will our high hopes for getting a husband to Miss Billings.

We, the Senior Class, will to Mr. Weaver a class that is not seen but always heard.

We, the Senior Class, will Mrs. Hanson our musical abilities to be divided among next year's band.

We, the Senior Class, will our ability to be quiet on the basement floor to Mrs. Diedrick.

We, the Senior Class, will our ability to play baseball to Mr. McCaffrey.

We, the Senior Class, will our pleasant smiles and cheerfulness to Mr. Pederson.

We, the Senior Class, do bequeath to Mr. Howe all the Agricultural equipment that the Senior boys borrowed.

We, the Senior Class, do bequeath Mr. Terry our boys' athletic abilities to be distributed between next years football and basketball teams.

I, DeLyle Amundson, will my ability not to pay attention in class to Genevieve Haugen.

I, Jim Dickison, will my walk to Janice Hasselman. May she use it well.

I, Janice Egeberg, do bequeath my waistline to Bonnie Erickson.

I, Le Roy Farry, do bequeath my quietness to Mary Stauffacher. Put it to good use, Mary.

I, Dolores Finster, do bequeath my love for dancing to the Cawkins twins.

I, Carol Gilbertson, do bequeath my dark eyes to Eva Markley.

I, Joyce Hasselman, do bequeath my pep and athletic ability to Carol Bobb.

I, Arlene Johnson, do bequeath my long blond hair to Pat Dahse.

I, Roger Johnson, do bequeath my althetic ability to Richard Taylor.

I, Paul Miller, do bequeath my physique to Darrel Mabie.

I, Dick Morris, do bequeath my ability to stay away from girls to Dick Laird. May he use it well.

I, Ronald Nelson, do bequeath my beard to Fred Young.

I, Betty Perington, do bequeath my curly hair to Rosemary Perkins.

I, LaVerne Quass, do bequeath my mental abilities to Junior Schadewalt.

I, Kay Schmid, do bequeath my sparkling personality to Marie Thostenson.

I, LeRoy Staaland, do bequeath my slim figure to Don Sheldon.

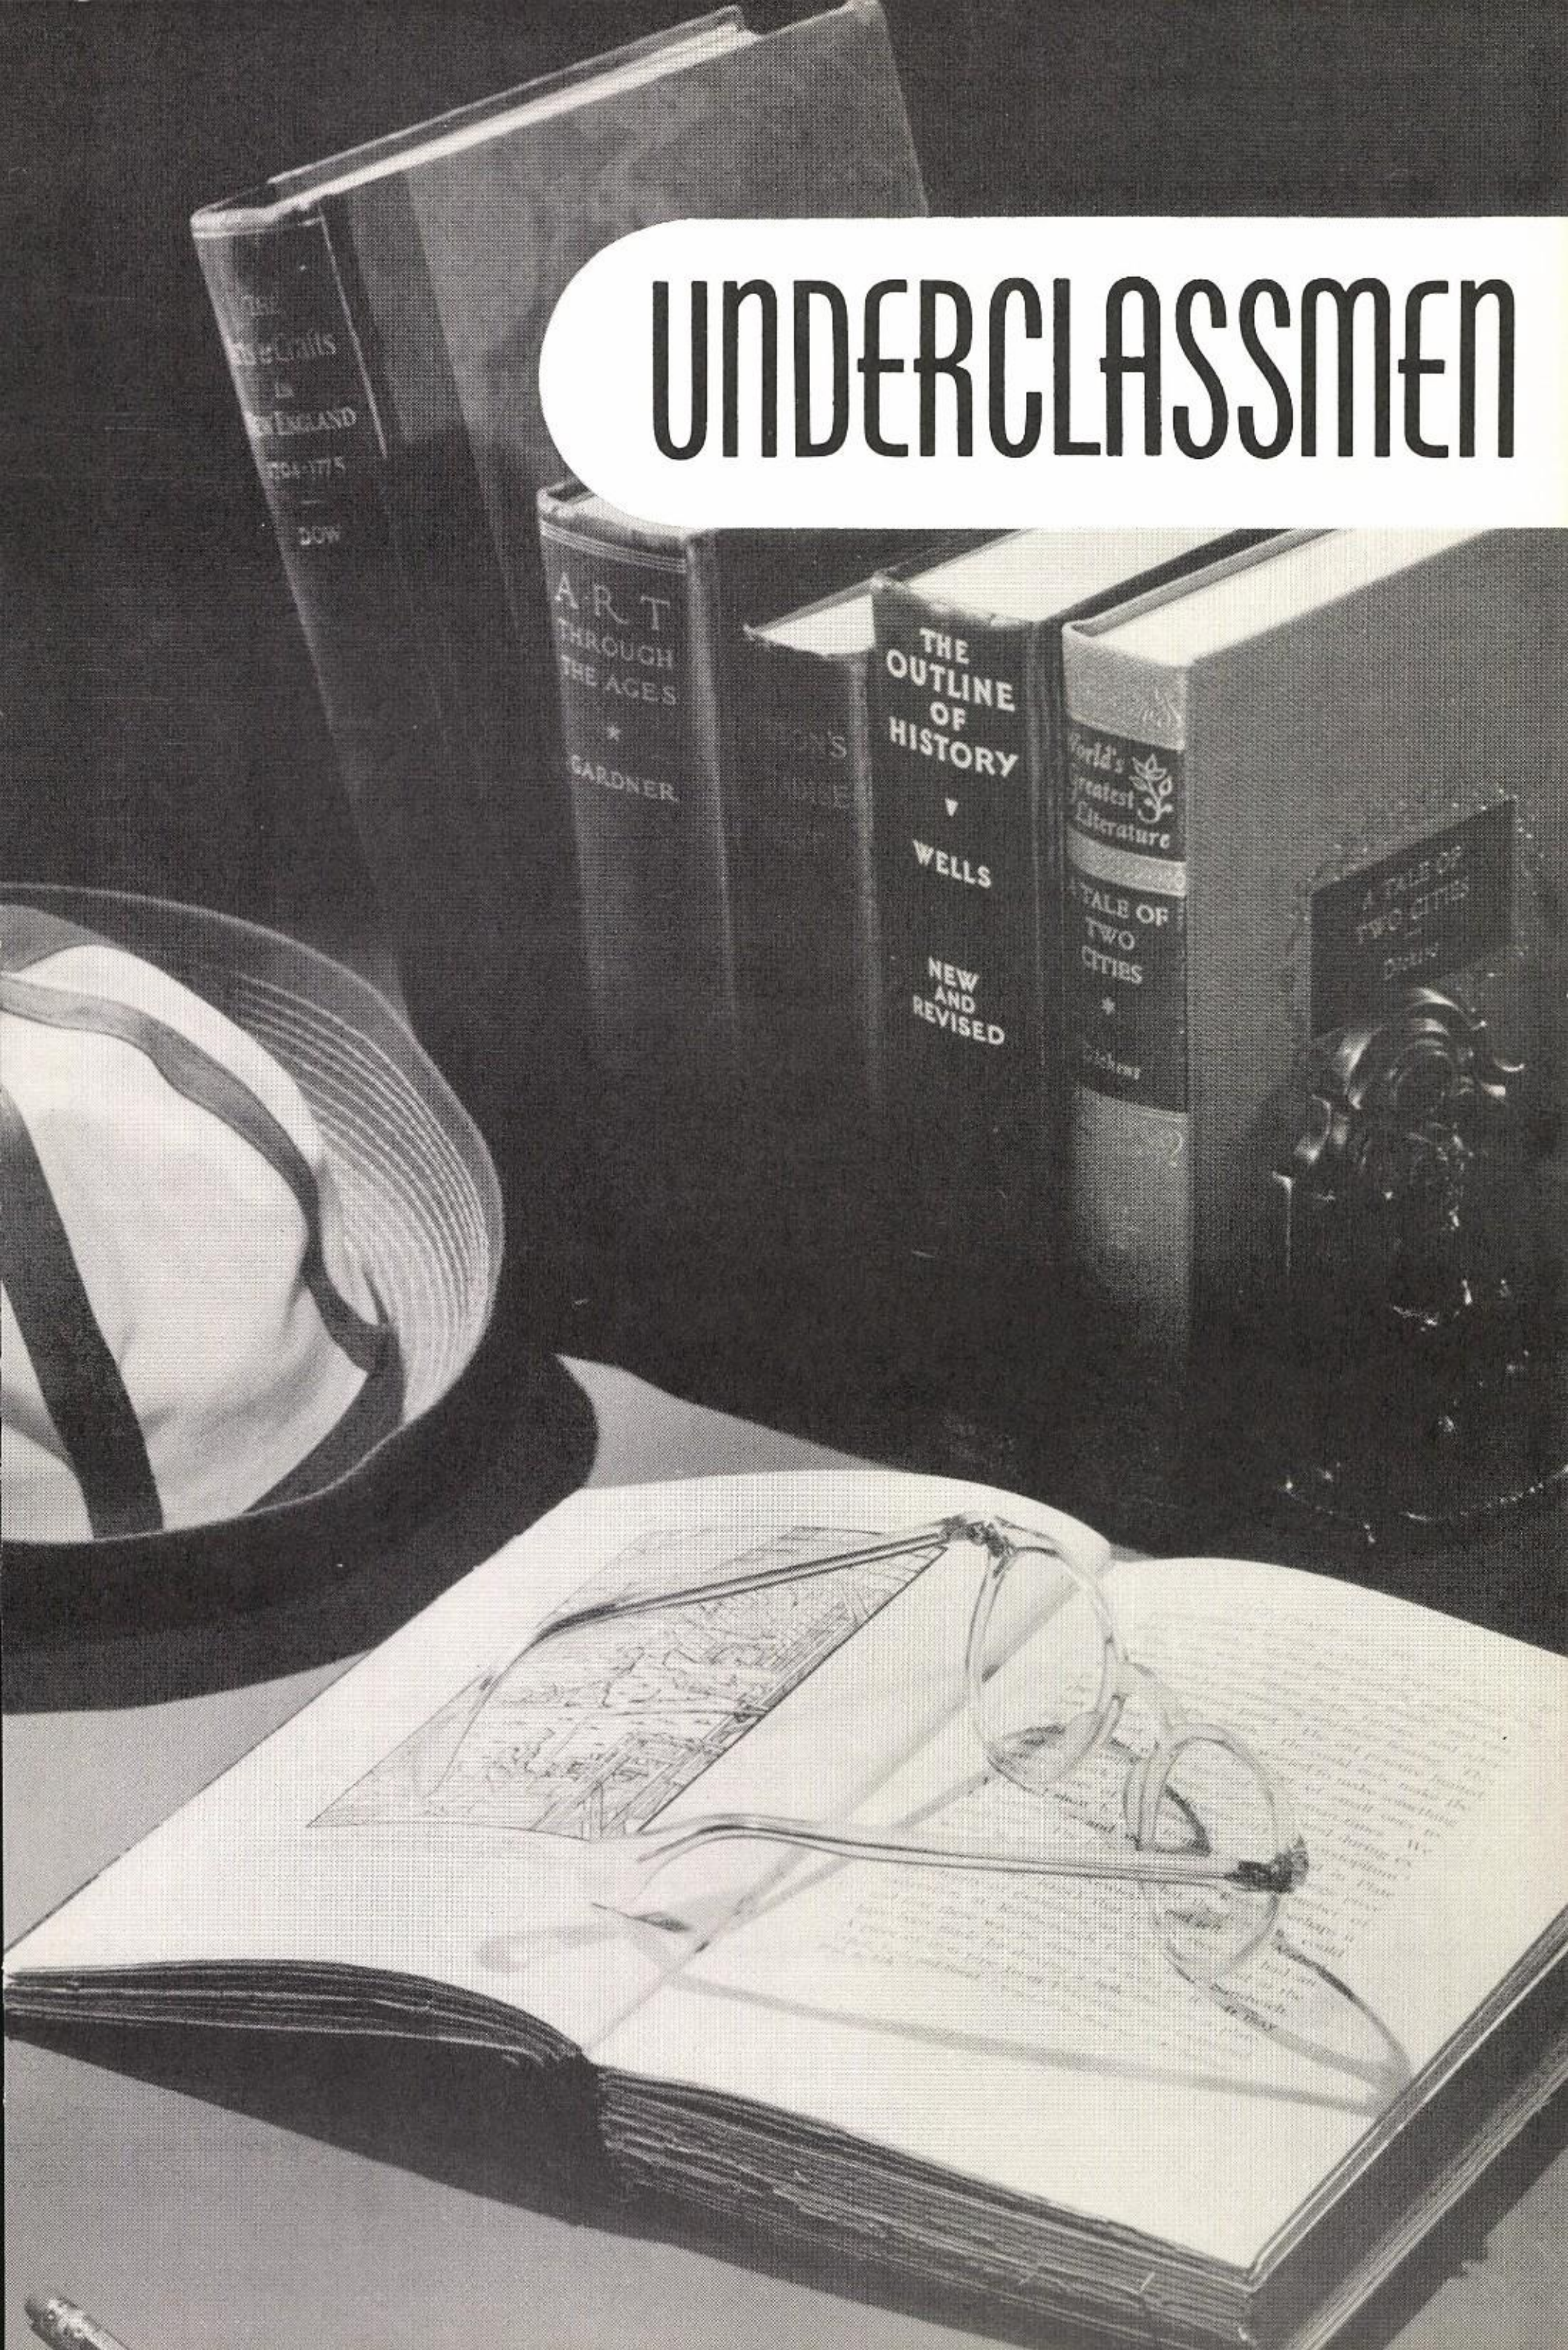

I, Claudette Sumpter, do bequeath my ability to get a man and keep him to Pat Ray.

I, Cathy Verstynen, do bequeath my ability to get a diamond to Helen Damrow.

In witness, whereof, we the class of 1955. have hereunto set our hands and seals to this, our last will and testament.

Trouble starts in "Keep Moving", when unwanted, trombone-playing Professor Randolph arrives at the Baldwin home and announces that he intends to stay the entire summer. Mr Baldwin is coming home and wants to find his house peaceful and quiet, and his young attractive daughter, Anne, intends that he shall find it so.

When Rush Harris, a snooping detective, a gossiping neighbor, a mysterious young girl selling soap, a complaining maid, and a strange woman who keeps insisting she has rented the house and intends to move in the next day all are mixed together there is bound to be fireworks.

Homecoming

Back Row: LaVerne Quass, Cathy Verstynen, and Roger Johnson

Our 1954 Homecoming rival was Brooklyn, and the weekend festivities began on October 28.

On Thursday night, the pep rally began with skits from the high school classes, Junior High, and various organizations.

The cheerleaders led us with a great variety of cheers. The Freshman were in charge of the bonfire, which followed the skits. A snake dance through town climaxed the evening.

The prizes for the skits were won by the Sophomore Class, Junior High, and Cheerleaders. The prizes for the window decorations were won by the Senior Class, Junior Class, and the Junior High.

The Senior girls decorated the goal posts on the football field in Footville and on Friday evening, during the half of the football game, the crowning of the queen was the main event. The band marched, played, and made formations for the Alumni. The Queen and her court rode across the field in a beautiful black convertible. Queen Cathy Verstynen was crowned by Honorary Captain Rodney Heyerdahl.

The queen's court included Janice Egeberg, Frances Huber, Joann Stauffacher, and Mary Wells.

The game was won by Orfordville by a score of 42 to 12. The Homecoming dance followed in the High School Auditorium.
